“ Marianne, we are sure sorry to hear about Mike. Barbara told us he had recently been diagnosed with cancer. I know what you are going through at a time like this, having the loss of my spouse a few years ago. But it will get easier to cope with as time goes on. Marianne, I am sorry that we won't be able to attend the funeral, because I have doctors appointments in Oklahoma City Wednesday and Thursday for follow ups on my Prostate Cancer treatments. You and your family are in our prayers.

“ Dear Myers Family,
I would like to express my heartfelt condolences on the loss of your dear loved one Michael. Although I never knew him personally, death is still something that touches us all because it truly hurts. What has helped me to cope during times such as these is reflecting on the comforting promises found in God's word the Bible. I've learned that our Heavenly Father promises to reunite us with our dead loved ones by means of a resurrection right here on earth in paradise conditions filled with peace, happiness, and where everyone living will be in perfect health. (John 5:28,29; Psalms 37:9-11,29; Isaiah 33:24) What gives me confidence that God's promises are sure to be fulfilled is meditating on the fact that it is impossible for Him to lie. (Hebrews 6:18; Isaiah 55:10,11) It is my fervent prayer that these Bible promises help to comfort you and make your present pain a little easier to bear. My deepest sympathy to you.
