“ *Dear Caroline and Mary,
I am so sorry for your loss,there just isn't any one that can take her place either. I'm sorry we will not be able to be there with you at this time. I pray that God will put his arms around you and hold you tight. We love you and our prayers will be with you at this time.You have our sympathy.

“ *I just this morning pulled up the information about the death of your mother. We are staying near Harlingen Texas for a few weeks, and I came to the library and found on the computer of the death of you loved one.
We don't have words to ease your loss, but you know that God is one that will always give peace, strength, comfort and all needed at every time needed.
God bless you Mary, Caroline and the rest of the family.*

“ Caroline, I am so sorry to hear about Aunt Blance. Aunt Lucille's daughter call me last night to ask if I had heard. Her mother, Lucille and Aunt Blanche met through Mother and Dad and become friends, you may have heard her name. If you tried to call me at Mother and Dads phone number, it is discontinued because last June their house burnt down , so I stopped the phone. I will try to reach you, but wanted you to know you will be in my prayers. I will not be able to attend the funeral. Aunt Blanche was such a sweet person. At least now she is at home with her family. I know you will miss her. Love, Linda
