“ We have had countless beautiful memories with The Olivers through the past 50+ years. Parents played Bridge, while the kids played board games or "kick the can" outside, Dad and Billy served for years with the Boy Scouts, with Gary and David, going to Philmont more than once. We've been Lake friends, and have always cherished seeing Nancy and Billy every Thanksgiving, with the trademark cranberry dressing. Nancy made her Dreambars, which we all loved, as well as her "trash". Our prayers go out to Billy, Gary, Cindy, and their extended families during this difficult time. We love you.

“ Nancy was the best friend anyone could have. So many wonderful memories of when we were young and raising our families. Love to hear her laugh . Our thoughts and prayers go out to Billy Joe. Cindy and Gary and all of her beloved family. Treasurer the last time we were together at Mary Spiller's surprise Birthday party. May Heaven's gates open wide for Nancy and give her the peace and rest she so well deserves.

Billy Joe, Cindy, Gary & families. Thinking of you with Christian love and prayers in the loss of sweet Nancy.. 70 years of a wonderful marriage is quite an accomplishment! I well remember their exemplary teen age love at JHS in the 1940's , and seeing them so happy over the years at our JHS 1950 class reunions & JHS Homecongs . Rest now in peace & glory. Sammy Akins
