

Nina Faye Easter Price Catlin

October 29, 1927 - April 17, 2013

Nina Faye Easter Price Catlin was born October 24, 1927 in Jacksboro, the first of 11 children born to Ernest and Opal Easter. She attended Jacksboro High School and NTSU. She married E.L. Price in 1946. Azle was her home for 39 years where she was employed by the Azle ISD as campus secretary at Eagle Heights Elementary. Her desire to see children succeed led her to dedicate her career and efforts to education. Nina was always there for her family, especially her three children and her grandchildren who enjoyed many wonderful times with their Mema.

In 1989 she married L.E. Catlin and returned to Jacksboro, enjoying time with family, traveling and at her home. She went home to be with the Lord Wednesday, April 17, 2013 at her home in Jacksboro.

Special thanks goes to her caregivers, Lorena Gutierrez, Ruth Salazar, Janet Vega and Gabby Ruiz-Galavis, for their love and care.

Nina was preceded in death by her parents, Ernest and Opal Easter; husband, E.L. Price; grandson, Jeffory Smith; brothers, Albert, Billy and Tommie; and sister, Annie Easter Daves.

Survivors: Husband, L.E. Catlin; sons, Jerry Price and Lois of Springtown, John Price and Kay of Fort Worth; daughter, Shirley Price and James of Saginaw; brothers, Clinton, James, Floyd and Joe Easter; sisters, Betty Graybill, Charlotte Williams; grandchildren, Derek, Jeff, Scott, Mandy and Samantha; eight great-grandchildren; and many nieces, nephews and friends.

“ Our heart grieves with the families of this sweet lady, Nina Faye. In the very short time I was privileged to know her, she was an inspiration and an encouragement. Her stories of the old days in Jack County made me wish we were still in an America like it used to be. Our sadness is in our loss, our happiness in her gain; may she rest in peace.
