Ollie was born October 7, 1910 in Cotton County, Oklahoma to George Martin and Little Sophronia Robinson Kinnard. They finally settled on a farm in Jermyn, Texas near Jacksboro where they finished raising eight children. Ollie married Steward Damron in 1930. They had been married 48 years when he died in 1978. Most of those years were spent in Jack County where they raised five children. Ollie married Ray Harper in 1982 but he only lived five more years. She was a champion 42 player as well at the Jacksboro Senior Citizen's Center. Ollie also made lots of beautiful quilts that her kids and grandkids still enjoy today. Ollie was a longtime member of Jermyn Baptist Church and then joined

Live Oak Baptist Church when she moved to Jacksboro.
