“ It's taken me a long time to be able to post this. I love and miss you so much Paw. You were and still are one of the strongest men I have ever met. I remember eating watermelon and having seed spitting contests. I wish I would have been able to talk to you more before you passed on. I know you, granny, Uncle Mike, Uncle TJ and the aunt I never got to know are still by my side.

“ I cherish the time I got to be part of Tom’s family for the past 39 years. Tom always treated me right and always treated me like I was one of his own. He loved his family dearly and loved telling stories. He was always there for me and my family anytime we needed him. Tom I love and miss you. Keep a lookout over all of us down here. Until we meet again. RIP.

“ Tom jump was a man of great integrity keeping current in the city's politics and our country. He held so much wisdom, experience, and ingenious insight when it came to handyman skills. He never stopped with his humor leaving you with tears in your eyes at times. A joy to be around he loved his family very much. I am so lucky to have met him and have him a part of my life. Be at peace now Tom
♥ miss you
