“ It has been less than three months since my precious wife went to her home in glory! Now my hero my dad has departed this world to join family and friends in heaven! My dad Otis Wayne Hudson passed away 5:45 pm Sunday. Dad died from prostate cancer that had spread throughout his body, dads last few weeks were spent at the Hospice of Wichita Falls! I cannot say how much we appreciate the love and care these ladies and others took care of my dad! I miss you already! Devin

“ My daddy was a man of few words. He worked hard all his life. It seemed he was a 'jack of all trades' and could fix just about anything. Always lending a helping hand. Above all my daddy was a Godly man. Leading by example for his family. He served 55 years in the church in various positions. ..teacher, deacon, Royal Ranger leader, Sunday school superintendent, greeter and handyman. Always there when the church doors were open. He didn't go for show or to play church. He wasn't perfect, he made mistakes but he tried everyday to live his best for the Lord. His words over and over in hospice was for us to pray that everyone gets to Heaven. Your work here was done and I know you are in Heaven with no more pain! Thank you for the legacy of love and prayer! Love you! Kristi
