“ Many memories. Playing down by the pond while grandma and grandpa's house was being built. Picnics, watermelon, swing ropes in the barn on to hay bails, racing Shetland Pony ' s. Hide and seek. Easter egg hunts. Your laugh I can still hear. When I was little I thought all of us would be close cousins forever. There was so many of us and close in age. We all went different paths but family we'll always be. Love You!! Tricia Price Freeman
