“ I met sherry several years ago , we shared nursing in our walk of life , she was a very kind person and good to her fellow man, she helped me in so many ways, always there to lend a hand, a very christian woman , she often listened to the other staff and shared their lives ,was verygood to the residents, played the piano and sang beautiful to the residents often . I know she is an angel and is with our lord now and no longer suffers , I will miss you my friend.

“ Sherry wasn't in our church long, but she certainly made an impact on a few of us while she was here. Such a bubbly, positive personality! You couldn't be in her presence without being lifted up. We're honored to have known you, Sherry. And through you, we met Jimmy. What a kind-hearted gentleman. It's easy to see why you fit together so well.

“ I guess Sherry and I were Sister/Friends. We met through work in 1979, and remained close all these years. The last visit I made while she was coherent, a couple of weeks ago, when I started to leave, she raised her hand and said "Abba Father". I imagine that might have been her first words in Heaven. I don't have room to tell all the memories, just so glad she was at last Happy, and that she is no longer suffering. Love you Sherry. Tell all my Loved ones when you saw me, I was on my way.

“ Sherry was the first person I meant when we moved to Texas. She was my neighbor for a few years before she married Jimmy. Every week we went to a women's group at the church to fellowship and knit and do other crafts. I cherish those times. Sherry was a godly women and now as the angels led the way to heaven she has now seen the face of God. Something as a Christian we all live for. I'll miss her.

“ I am so sorry to hear this. I knew her as Sherry, in college at TWU & church at Hillcrest Baptist Church in Denton. I was a Home Ec major. My husband and I spent a lot of time together with her and her husband at the time, Mark, back then. She was a great encourager to me then, and again in 2001 when I had breast cancer. We always intended to get back together; I guess those plans will be put off till I get to Heaven. I know she was so excited to find a new love, her current husband, and to reconnect with her son and become a part of his life and his children's lives. She was a very special lady. “ Sherry was a beautiful person. She would always say "let's pray right now" if a problem was mentioned. She also kept her sense of humor even amid the pain. Sam and I feel very privileged to have met her and experienced her Christian witness.

Sherry will be truly missed by all. She always brought humor where there was sadness and she was always positive when there was a problem. She cared for her patients and took care of their needs. Sherry I love you and will miss you.

We first met Sherry when her dad, Bro. Ray Pate and family came to Melrose in 1961 through 1964, where he was our new pastor at First Baptist Church, Melrose, New Mexico. Sherry was always so much fun to be with. She was 3 years younger than me, but at church we were always in the same youth groups together. Bro. Pate baptized Donald and later married us in Dec. of 1961. Sherry sang at our wedding. She had a beautiful voice and loved to sing in the church choir. She always called us "Ken and Barbie".... even during our visits the last few months of her life. We had lots of personal visits on FB message. Many times she would say "Lets pray" and we did. She loved her daddy so much and was lonesome and concerned about his health. We were so happy to see her several years ago when she and a friend drove to Melrose for our annual Old Timer's Day celebration. She shared with me that she had found the love of her life... and that was Jimmy Vestall. She was so happy!! Sherry was a wonderful blessing to our lives. This isn't good bye.... it is "See you Later, sweet Sherry"..... We have lots of sweet memories of our fun friend. Love, Sue and Donald Hightower
