“ Through high school Mr Applewhite was the biggest influence as an adult leader with Troop 111 in Jacksboro. I never forgotten at one scout meeting when he told me that my most unique skill was how thorough and for good or bad I didn't leave any detail out from casual conversations with peers to documentation for my Eagle Scout project. That is still a hallmark of my professional work to this day and I probably wouldn't have realized it until he told me.
