“ I met Roland and Mary only a few months ago but knew instantly they were special and loving people. I have known Marlene for several years now and always knew it had to be special people who raised her. It has been my pleasure to have known Rowland and know he will be truly missed by his family and friends. God be with you, Mary, during this time of sorrow. May your faith and love of family and friends ease your burden because of your lose. My prayers are with all of you.

“ *Mary, Mary Jo & Marlene:
I was so sorry to read of Roland's passing. I knew your dad and mom through school events in the past, attending church but I really enjoyed getting to know your mom and dad when I worked at Spiller's. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.*
