

Roy Newton Leach

May 18, 1955 - February 15, 2019

Roy Newton Leach passed away at age 63 at Medical City Lewisville surrounded by loving family members on February 15, 2019. Roy was a loving son, brother, husband, father, uncle, grandfather and friend.

Roy was born on May 18, 1955 in Jacksboro, Texas to Norval "Pistol" Ennis Leach and Myrtis Chambers Leach. He was the youngest born of three siblings, Damon "Bubba" and Ann. Roy graduated from Jacksboro High School in 1973 where he was a standout, multi-sport, athlete who excelled in football, basketball and track. As a two-time all-state athlete, he was highly recruited and ultimately continued his football career with a full scholarship to Texas Christian University.

Roy married his high school sweetheart, Angela Fleming, on August 7, 1976 at the First Baptist Church of Jacksboro. The following year Roy received a business degree from TCU and went on to manage a Radio Shack. Soon after, he became a partner in an insurance agency in Arlington, Texas. Roy ultimately found his calling in 1992 when he founded ResCom Fire Systems. While Roy was a successful entrepreneur his greatest joy came from being a devoted family man and proud dad to Matt Leach and his wife, Marian and "Pops" to granddaughter Cassandra Leach.

Roy was a man of many passions which included writing poetry, community activism and being an avid outdoorsman. He enjoyed spending time at the family "Home Place" outside of Jacksboro where he continuously worked to improve the land for the betterment of the wildlife. This included planting an orchard and clearing land to create food plots. Roy was a lifetime member and supporter of Quality Deer Management Association. While he lived in several different cities during his lifetime, his heart remained in Jacksboro. He was passionate about giving back to the community through his support of many different local organizations.

When asked, Roy's ideal vision of life consisted of being outdoors at the "Home Place" looking at wildlife, hearing his son laugh and being with Angie. When asked how he wanted to be remembered, Roy replied, I cannot answer how people will remember me, I can only hope that I had a positive influence on my friends and family. The final thoughts he wished to leave behind were to think before you react, make good choices, say thank you and I love you.

He is survived by wife Angela, son Matt and wife Marian, their daughter Cassandra; sister Ann Leach Powell and many beloved cousins, brother-in laws, sister-in laws, nieces and nephews.

Roy was preceded in death by his parents; Norval "Pistol" Ennis Leach and Myrtis Chambers Leach, and brother Damon "Bubba" Leach.

In honor of Roy's giving spirit, donations can be made to a local organization of your choice.

“ I spent so much time when I was young with the Leaches I definitely felt like part of their family. And they treated me that way.

Roy has always been a father figure to me and has been someone to look up to. I've never known someone as hard-working as Roy. Not only was he hard-working but he was incredibly charitable with his time and money.

I'm always going to miss cracking jokes with you at the office and watching you pull pranks on Matt and Caleb. I'll miss us talking about the Dallas Mavericks and the next trade we think they should make.

Roy, I miss you, I love you and I hope to one day see you again.

“ Sometimes life just doesn't seem fair. It's still hard to believe you're gone. You were TJ's boss for 25ish years and yes I know y'all butted heads often but when push came to shove there is no one else he would have rather had in his corner. He knew if and when he needed anything you would always come through and to tell you the truth I can't think of anything he wouldn't have done for you. Jo and Scout loved and thought the world of you. You were a bonus grandpa to them and will be so missed. They saw you as kind, giving and fun but I saw you as so much more. You never made them feel like they were in the way out at Battle Mountain while they "helped" fill feeders. I'm so glad you were in our lives even if it was just for a little while. You will forever be Loved and Missed by the Stehlik Family.

“ *Condolences to Roy's family and friends.
Roy was my boss, a stern man, and an extremely hard worker.
As I got to know him, and work with him over 5 years I also found him to be fair, kind, and putting the importance of family above work.
The last time I talked to him he apologized for falling asleep in front of the computer in his office at 6pm on a Friday.
That was Roy to me, putting in 10-14 hour days, 6 days a week, yet being humble enough to apologize for the slightest lapse.
He will be greatly missed, a tough boss, but a better friend.*

“ We would like to express our sincere condolences to you and your family. With deep sympathy, we share your sorrow, after the tears have dried and the goodbyes have been said, all we have to hold onto are the happy memories that we've shared with our loved ones who have passed, this is what keeps them alive in our hearts and in our minds, and they will continue to live on, through us. May God give you the strength to endure the pain you are going through and may he embrace you and comfort your family during this difficult time."Jesus said to her: 'I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life.'" - John 11:25
