“RUBY WAS THE KINDEST WOMAN I HAVE EVER MET. I WAS BLESSED TO MEET HER YEARS AGO AS HER HOME HEALTH NURSE. SHE ALWAYS HAD A SMILE AND ENCOURAGING WORD THAT MADE YOU FEEL BETTER JUST TO BE WITH HER. SHE HAD A GIFT OF EMPATHY AND TENDERNESS, AND ALWAYS ASKED ABOUT MY KIDS. MY FAMILY HAS SANG CHRISTMAS CAROLS TO HER FOR MANY YEARS. SHE ANSWER MY NUMEROUS QUESTIONS WHEN I TRIED TO HAVE MY FIRST GARDEN.

IT HAS BEEN SOME TIME SINCE I HAVE SEEN HER AND MY HEART ACHES TO HAVE LOST A SPECIAL FRIEND.

SHE LOVED HER FAMILY SO MUCH AND TALKED ABOUT HER TWO SONS AND GRANDKIDS OFTEN. SHE HAD SEVERAL DEAR NIECE'S THAT CALLED HER OFTEN, SENT HER FOOD, FLOWERS, ETC AND BRIGHTENED HER DAYS.

WHAT A BLESSING TO HAVE KNOW SUCH A LOVELY LADY! I HAVE NEVER HEARD ANYONE SAY ANYTHING BUT KIND WORDS ABOUT THIS ADORABLE WOMAN. HOW AT PEACE SHE MUST BE TO BE WITH HER HUSBAND AND DAUGHTER SHE TALKED ABOUT OFTEN!

“Mrs Humphries was a special lady. She was one of the first people to be on meals on wheels --30 years! Every volunteer who delivered to her home--loved her because she was so kind---and appreciated what they were doing for her. She called many times to tell us how much she loved the meals and to be sure and thank the cooks. We will miss her.

“ To the family of Ruby Humphries. We are saddened that Ruby has not been well. Pete delivered meals on wheels to her for a long period of time, and he always looked forward to her smiling face and interest she showed in us. She was a special lady. You will certainly have good memories of a Great Lady.
May God give you strength for this hard time in your lives.
