“ I miss you so much Mom. My world has come crashing down around me. I not only lost my mom but I lost my best friend. No matter what I knew I could always count on you. You were a very strong, beautiful woman with one of the biggest hearts I've ever seen. Thank you for your unconditional love. I will cherish all the wonderful memories I have with you. Rest easy now. And give my grandpa and sister big hugs from me. Until I see you again. Love you Momma.

“ I met Sandy after driving in from Minnesota. I was totally exhausted and she was indeed such a warm, talkative, loving lady, we became friends. She would call me and I her over the years. I recall one time she did so, and I couldn't understand a thing she said. I kept asking her to repeat what she said..then finally said, Sandy, I can't understand a thing you saying girl. All I heard was, Crap..then after a pause, "there is that better. Sorry, forgot my teeth!" That woman was the spice of my life, and loved to laugh, which we did often. She loved to hear a joke and had a mitt full of them to share. Always tons of stories to tell, and loved her family and husband, so proud of them all, she will be remembered as one strong woman with a lot of love to give.
