“ Dear Family, I am so sorry for the loss of Sally we were praying for her recovery. Her story and your love for Sally drew me and my boys in. I know its hard but Sally is in a better place and we can all be with her someday. This should make everyone hug a little tighter and a little longer. Please know your family is in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Our prayers are with all of Sally's family at this difficult time. She was a beautiful lady with a beautiful spirit. Her students were so blessed to have had her in class. Our prayers are also with the Jacksboro ISD and Jacksboro Elementary, where she will be missed by so many. We will continue to pray for all of you in the days and months ahead.

“ Josh, I just wanted you to know that I share a bit of your broken heart with you. I faintly remember Sally from Kindergarten as a beautiful little dark haired girl. From reading the other tributes I see she grew up to be a beautiful dark haired woman inside and out. My thoughts are with your and your little angels. I know the next little bit will be hard for you and them, but time will help. My Dad died when I was 8, so I really feel your pain. You and your wonderful family are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Our thoughts and our prayers are with each and every family member, and friend. Sally was such a loving, caring person who I considered a true role model. There was not a day that went by during our school years together that she did not have a beautiful smile on her face. Her love for her parents, brother and sister was so strong that you could see it a mile away. My heart is saddened with the loss of this beautiful talented Mother, sister, daughter, friend, and teacher. She will truly be missed by so many, I pray that God can give you all peace, and comfort while you find a way to get through this time.

“ Sally was an angel a true gift from God. She always had a smile on her face. I can not think of a time that she was not nice to me or anyone else. She had a gift of making everyone around her feel loved. In high school people could be hatefull & hurtfull, but not Sally. I have thought about her kindness through out the years. She will be missed by all.

My prayers are with all the family. Sally was blessed to have all of you. Thank you for all the updates. I know it was hard, it meant alot to us.

“ It has been said that "Heaven gives its favorites an early death" we know this is certainly true in this case. Not so easy on those of us left here though. Many prayers go out for you we know how hard it is may God walk by your side.

“ *Dear Owen and Harrington Families,
May each of you find comfort in knowing that God is "near to those that are broken at heart; and those who are crushed in spirit he saves." (Psalm 34;18) He has promised to soon "swallow up death forever...and wipe the tears from all faces." (Isaiah 25;8) With sympathy,*

“ Our thoughts and prayers go out to you all as you mourn for sweet Sally. She always had a smile on her face at school and was always pleasant to be around. Hold on tight to all the precious memories you have with her. This and the love of Jesus will carry you through. May Jesus wrap his arms around you these days and give you the comfort you need.
God Bless,
