I had the pleasure of knowing Sharon when she worked for the Jacksboro Newspapers. She was always very helpful and was a talented author herself. Later, I hired her to drive for Concerned Citizens. The people on the van loved her and she loved each of them. But, most of all she loved her family.

“ We are so very sorry for your loss, especially Mickey in the loss of both your daughters. Our prayers are with you. Crystal, Bubba, James, the grandchildren, and the rest of your family, Sharon shared many times how much she loved all of you. We were born on the same day and went to school together. For years when we both lived in other places and finally, both in Jacksboro again, she would call to wish me a happy birthday. She always beat me to make that call. I am so sorry she suffered so much the last few years. I wish I had done more for her. She will be missed by many. Our prayers are with you also.

“ Mickey and Family,

Words cannot express my sadness for you and your family. May God be with you all during this sad time. Sharon and I were best of friends in Junior High and High School spending countless hours at each other's homes baking cakes, talking about boys, and just having fun being teenagers. Sharon lived in town and we lived on the farm. She told me, years later, that she loved coming to our house because we had cows and chickens. I loved coming to town and spending time at your beautiful home where I felt warmth and so welcome during those years. My prayers are with you and the family throughout the coming days.
