“ Mom. I love you with all my heart. Today is one of those days that I want you hear your voice. But sadly it won't happen. It gets easier. But the small things make me think of you. I want to thank you for being my mom. Through all of the good and the bad. I love you. Clayton.

“ Sherri is now with her best friend and God. She always wanted to speak to Grandma again and now we will have both of them as Angels looking down.

Linda, Chuck, Charles, Doug & Chris, we have watched so many years pass and had always hoped that in the end all would be well for Sherri. I would say she has finally found the peace she has been looking for. Our loss of Sherri is great but knowing she is out of pain is a blessing. Thank you Linda for my birthday present 36 years ago.

My love to each of you and I praise the lord for all his mercy.

“ Our prayers and sympathies are with you during this time of loss. It is so difficult to see your sister, daughter, wife, or mom go through such a time as this. May the Holy Spirit just wrap you in HIS arms and give you the best comfort possible. Her pain and sufferings have ended, and we know we will meet her once again in the glories of Heaven. That is our blessed hope! May God meet your needs at this time.
