June 17, 1929 - March 16, 2022

Shirley Lee (Nunley) King, of Jacksboro, passed away on March 16, 2022 at the age of 92. She was born on June 17, 1929 to Jesse David and Lizzie Victoria (Goodson) Nunley. Before retirement, she worked at the Jack County Hospital, Concerned Citizens Center, and did babysitting for many families of her community. Her favorite "job" was driving a snow cone truck around town. Her passions were cooking/baking, planting in her flower garden, sewing for others and being with her kids, grandkids and great grandkids.

She was preceded in death by her husband, her parents, her sister, Madeline, her brother and sister-in-law, Howard and Ola Mae Nunley; a granddaughter, Mitzi Clayton Janway, a grandson-in-law, Bryan Hicks, 2 nephews, Gary Glover and Paul Nunley and a brother-in-law, Harold Glover.

She is survived by her daughters, Karen (Richard) Cleghorn, of Jacksboro, and Clarissa (Mickey) Clayton, of Sulphur Springs, TX, her son, Llewellyn

King, of Midlothian, TX, 6 grandchildren: Shanna (J.D.) I will really miss Ms. Shirley I've delivered her mail for over 28 years and she was the most thoughtful and loving person. She always remembered my Birthday and surprised me with a wonderful cake or delicious zucchini bread or Hot Tea on a cold winter day, always asking about my family and was so proud of her own family. She was truly grateful to God and a wonderful witness for Jesus. I know she's rejoicing in Heaven with her wonderful Paul .Love to all her family. Kathy Edmonson
