“ Thinking of all of you and sending my Thoughts and Prayers to ease the pain of the loss of our Dear Sonja. She had a heart the size of Texas and if she loved you, she loved you unconditionally and for eternity. I wish I could have spent more time with her and not had so many miles between us. I can see from reading all the beautiful and thoughtful memories on this page that she was so loved and cherished by so many!

“ Sonja, it is with a heavy heart I want to post on your page and tell you Rest in Peace! You have always had a very special place in my life....we didn't see eachother often, we didn't talk real often, but you knew you could always come to me and I would try to help to show you comfort. You could talk and I could listen.....we've done it so many times over the past few months and for years before that. I know your Girls, Valerie, Becky and Kelly are going to miss you terribly and all those little Grandbabies will miss out on so much not having you around. But, I bet you left them enough precious sweet memories to sweeten their lives for many many years! I am sure going to miss your kind postings to my page.....the calls at 2:00 in the morning and some 2 hours conversations when we talked about everything and everyone imaginable. May you always know how very much you mean to me. Since we don't and never have used the words step or half in our house, my Sweet Daughter, I want to say I love you and will miss your kind heart and generous ways, the hours we laughed the time away, and, all the adorable postings you would send me, and the sweet pics always on my messages.....you will be forever missed! May you dance the days away now that you can be with Vicki, Paige, Shane, Danny and Paul and all your other loved ones who have gone before you!

“ Sonja was probley the sweetest person I have ever met in my life and I was fortunate enough to be in her family. We really enjoyed her visit with us over the summer and I will never forget our times and private conversations that we shared not to mention the pickle juice snow cones she loved....we would enjoy our evenings watching her owl in the tree close to where she would sit at night..I love you Sonja and thank you for showing us how much you loved everyone....she loved everybody...God bless her 3 girls and her grandchildren as all of you were so dear to her...We love you guys

“ There are no words to express the sadness I feel now for your loss. When the pain of death becomes overwhelming, we can turn to God in prayer. The Bible tells us to "throw all of your anxieties on him, because he cares for you," (1 Peter 5:7). Take comfort in knowing that he loves us and that "one day he will wipe tears from our eyes, and that death will be no more,"(Isaiah 25:8). I hope this scripture gives you peace and endurance during this time of bereavement.
