

Sylvia Brant

November 12, 1926 - December 8, 2006

Sylvia Joe Brant was born on November 12, 1926 to Joseph and Jewel (Hodges) Beggs in Jacksboro, Texas. She married Daniel C. Brant II, January 12, 1946 in Jack County, Texas and he preceded her in death August 26, 2003. Sylvia went to be with the Lord Friday December 8, 2006 in Fort Worth, Texas at the age of 80. She was a very giving, selfless person whose number one priority was her family. Besides being a devoted mother and wife, she volunteered at various organizations within the military community including: the Orphanage in Puerto Rico; she was involved as a Den mother for the Cub Scouts; a lifetime member and supporter of the Botanical Gardens in Fort Worth, Texas; as a spouse she was a member of the Jolly Roger 90th Bob group. In 1942, she worked as a secretary at the Navy Base in Alameda, California; she served as treasurer at the Ramey Air Force Base NCO Club; and had worked at the main branch of the Fort Worth Public Library. She is survived by a son, Daniel Cleveland Brant, III and wife, Tana of Rancho Palos Verde, California; a daughter, Charlotte Trapuzzano of North Richland Hills, Texas; two grandchildren, Mark Trapuzzano and wife, Sheri; Mike Trapuzzano; and great-grandchildren Elena; Sebastiu; Shannon; and Samantha.

Tribute Wall

“ Sylvia Brant

October 09, 2023 at 04:16 AM

“ Sylvia Brant

January 28, 2023 at 12:10 PM