“ *Yeah she may have been "Grandma"
But she was more like "mom"
And the best mom ever.
I love you grandma...*

“ I think you picked the perfect picture of Terri to share. It showcases that amazing smile she had. One of my fondest memories of her was her ready smile and contagious laugh. When she laughed and smiled, you could hear and see the absolute joy.

Another favorite thing I remember were the conversations, whether mundane or serious, I truly enjoyed just talking with her.

Terri was so creative, as well. She made me this beautiful Christmas centerpiece once, which I still have. It may have seemed a simple thing to her, but to me it was so clever and so precious.

She also gave of herself without even thinking. I remember once she got called into the blood bank late one evening to donate. I can't recall now what it was they needed but off she went without a thought.

To Jim, Robert, and the rest of the family and friends, please accept my sincerest and heartfelt condolences. I am so very sorry for your loss.
