“ Just want to say that to the family, and friends, that the service today was one that i can see Vickie approving of. It was a blessing to know such a sweet, loving and careing person. The memories that i have with her, her family and especially the times they were Michaels second family while him and Jake went through the trials of teenage hood.
They even took Michael on vacations with them. It was this time i got to know Vickie.
Thank you for helping me raise my son.
My heart breaks for all of you, it doesnt seem real or right. Just know that you have lots of people behind you and God will help your body and soul heal as time goes by.
One day you will realize that each has gotten a little easier.
She is not gone, but on a long journey and waiting for all of us at the end of the trail.

Take care and God Bless,
