“ *Here's the story I shared with the family today:
in December 1974 Vickie was a candy striper at the hospital here. I was in labor with my Vickie Lynn. Mr May was mad because I had a girl not a boy. Vickie McAnear took him to the hall and read him the riot act. He came back to the room with a smile on his face and a different attitude. I named my baby Vickie Lynn because of her and she acts like Vickie McAnear.*

“ Dear Joe, Misty, Lacy, and Family,
Vickie and I have been friends since she was 7 and I was 12. We moved into town for a year while we built our new house in Joplin. We lived in the green stucco house next door to Vickie and her parents. I don't know how old Terry was, but I never saw him that year, so he must have been very young. Vickie would come to the back door and yell for me to come out. We have been friends ever since. When I married and moved back, I became Misty and Lacy's math teacher and Lacy's cheer sponsor. We continued our friendship after our kids were grown. I am so sorry -she was a good friend and she loved all of her family: Joe and the girls, Terry, and especially, her grandchildren. Prayers for all.

Jane and I ate breakfast next to Joe and Vickie, and sometimes Shelby, at the Village Kitchen almost every Sunday. I will miss that tremendously and will think about her every time I go in there for the rest of my days. I know that Jane, Beverly G. and I will cherish the day we get to meet up with her again!! May the Peace of the Lord be always with her and the family.*

“ Joe and family,
We are heart broken to hear about sweet Vickie, and send our deepest condolences. Vickie was one of a kind and will be greatly missed by all who knew her. The delight and love of her life was her family. She was not judgmental and she loved others unconditionally. She was the best and most faithful friend anyone could ask for, and Dawn and I are blessed to have had her as our friend. Praying that God will comfort you all and give you His perfect peace at this time. Love, Carolyn and Dawn
