You know that your Mom occupied a very special place in my heart. She was always very caring and loving with me. Each time I visited her I was filled with joy because of the love and kindness in her heart.

Your father's illness placed an unbelievable burden on the both of you, and both of you handled it with dignity and grace. I thank you for that.

Irene has now gone to her reward. She is free of pain and discomfort, totally at peace. I will miss her, but am so happy that she was a part of my life.

Love you,

Wayne and Pete
