We shared alot of good times with Bill when we were much younger.
Peace be to Sherry and the boys.

“ I was honored and blessed to call Bill a friend for 58 years, so needless to say I was shocked and saddened to hear of his untimely passing. Through the years we shared countless good times and of course a few bad, but now all my memories of Bill are only of the good. I fondly remember Bill for his always being on the cutting edge of everything, whether it be bicycles, go-carts, model airplanes, real airplanes, fireworks , motorcycles, cars, guns, computers, video games, and most everything else that was fast and loud. If you knew Bill, you knew a daredevil, a risk taker, an entrepreneur, and a visionary. He was a man of strong convictions and character beyond reproach. He was charitable, supportive, and I trusted him implicitly. He had a great sense of humor that I presume came from his dad, and a tender, loving heart of gold that could only have come from his mom. I could always count on Bill, and through the years I sought his wise counsel on many occasions. Bill was a gentleman and true friend, and I will miss him dearly.

“ Sherry, Hank, Tommy, Brandon, Pete and Nancy,

I want to express my deepest regrets on your loss of Bill Henry. My entire childhood is filled with memories of growing up next door to Bill, Pete, Roy and Melba. There was never a dull moment when Bill and I were "up to no good" as our elders would say. Looking back now, I really can't think of a single thing that we ever did that was even slightly bad compared to what goes on these days. We all had it made and just didn't realize it. I'm sure the neighborhood parents often wondered why we were climbing over a fence or scaling the biggest trees on the block...we just wanted to be where no one "had gone before" and out of reach of those wanting to capture us. We had a great group of kids to hang with...Pete Roberts, Mike and Bob Grace, Sheryl, Stan and Stace Sewell, Judy and Brenda Jackson, Rick and Patty Zuber, George and Steve Fulbright...and on and on. We were so lucky to have each other and I have never forgotten those lifetime bonds. May God's love encompass you and keep you peaceful in the days to come.

“ My heart goes out to the Cherryhomes family and all those touched by such a great man. I never got the honor of knowing Bill personally but I know many people love him and will miss him greatly. Over the years I have heard some great stories about Bill and I always laugh, I know he touched many lives. I pray his loved ones can find comfort in these passing days. I wish I could be there to pay my respects but I hope everyone knows I am there in mind/spirit. My heart goes out to Hank & Tommy Cherryhomes & Jason Cook, I know he was a like a father to Jason as well. R.I.P. Bill, you will be missed.

My deepest condolences,

“ Sherry,

I was so sad to hear of Bill's passing. I know you were so happy and your happiness was shortened by this untimley death. I will keep you and all of the children in my prayers. I know with the death of my son that grieving is a process that takes time. Allow yourself that. Keep your faith.
